

How to find us in Edinburgh?

The Scottish Refugee Council will be located in new offices from 5th July 2004.

Type of Advice	Where & When?
One Stop Service Advice We help new arrivals to Scotland to claim asylum and access support. We also provide one to one assistance on all aspects of the asylum process such as, accommodation, support, special needs (eg pregnancy, disability or mental health problems), availability of legal support, racial harrassment, domestic violence, employment and education.	Citizen's Advice Bureau Monday 10:00 - 13:00 Thursday 10:00 - 16:00 Edinburgh Refugee Centre Monday 14:00 - 16:00
Housing & Welfare Advice Specialist advice on on all housing matters after a decision has been made on your asylum claim.	Edinburgh Refugee Centre Thursday 13:00 - 16:00
Education & Employment Advice Specialist advice and guidance on entitlements to education and employment.	Edinburgh Refugee Centre Thursday 13:00 - 17:00

Citizens' Advice Bureau, 58 Dundas Street

Edinburgh Refugee Centre,
St. Georges West Church,
Shandwick Place

Waverly Train Station

Call this number free for advice or to book an appointment

0800 085 6087